

THE MONTEITH BRAND

JOCK MONTEITH IS A HIGHLY RESPECTED SALMON FISHING PROVIDER WHO HAS BUILT A SOLID REPUTATION FOR ARRANGING & DELIVERING TOP SERVICE LEVELS WITHIN THE SCOTTISH SALMON FISHING INDUSTRY.

Appearances on BBC Reporting Scotland, Sky's Alba Turus A Bhradain series, Sky Sports, French Sky TV sporting television, BBC's Grand Tours of Scotland & Scottish Television together with interviews on Radio Scotland and various input in tabloids Telegraph & Scotsman have established his reputation as a leading promoter & provider of Scottish salmon fishing.

Jock has also achieved success in various other areas of the sport including playing the pioneering & private fundraising role for Europe's largest ever river habit survey on the River Tay which successfully evaluated over 1000 miles of the Tay system's headwaters. Jock was also the first ghillie in Scotland to publicly call for a 'Catch & Release' policy for conservation of Scotland's Atlantic salmon stocks.

Jock's passion for Scottish salmon fishing started in 1970 when he landed his first salmon at the age of five on the River Tay under the guidance of his mentor the late legendary 'Willie 'the ghillie' Laird. As a career Head Ghillie on the River Tay Jock has taught & enthused thousands of salmon anglers and his professional salmon guide team are also all fully versed in duplicating his salmon fishing teaching techniques which are simplistic, logical and effective.

Jock has over 20 years of experience in arranging high quality corporate hospitality salmon fishing events where attention to detail and the client experience are always at the forefront of his thoughts. Notably, Jock and his team successfully delivered a 250-guest salmon fishing event on the River Tay in June of 2022 which marked one of many highlights of his career. Jock's unique track record and reputation has brought him clients from the VIP world & Royalty.
